

Dorothy Sutton Performance Festival (DSPF)

Festival Day Details

Attire: Nice recital attire (no jeans or sneakers)

Arrival: Arrive 15-20 minutes before your performance time.
Check in at Lancaster Bible College Good Shepherd Chapel lobby.
Limited practice rooms are available for students who wish to warm up.

Music: Students need to bring their original music for the judges, or they will be disqualified.
Photocopies are strictly prohibited unless a signed DSPF Photocopy Release Form was submitted at the time of enrollment.

Theory Test: Students may take the theory test before or after their performance.
Teachers will guide their students regarding how much time to allow for the test.

NOTE: Students who perform 3:30 p.m. or later must take the theory test before performing.

Performance:

- A room monitor will greet students at the performance room.
- Have music open to the correct pages.
- The room monitor will accompany each student into the room.
- Parents and teachers must remain outside the room during the performance.
- After performing, exit the room as the judge writes comments. Leave music with the judge.
- Wait outside the room until the judge is finished writing comments and the room monitor returns the music.

Results: Teachers will receive theory test results and judges' comments after the festival, and will communicate with their students.
